Wallace Is Cheered in Wisconsin

By REX THOMAS

Associated Press Writer
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Cheered hysterically by thousands of admirers and heckled by civil rights pickets, George Wallace "bald" his critics Thursday night that the days of "the anarchists in this country" are numbered.

Wallace's return to Wisconsin, the state where he first ran for president in 1964, brought a thunderous welcome from an estimated 6,000 followers who jammed the city auditorium to cheer their candidate and donate their dollars to his campaign fund.

More than 500 white and Negro youths led by the Rev. James E. Groppi, marched into the auditorium, too—on a different mission. They tried to drown out the former Alabama governor with noisy outbursts of heckling. Some even booed while the crowd was intoning the Lord's Prayer.

But they had difficulty making themselves heard because their jeers were drowned out by the tumultuous cheers of the Wallace partisans. Finally, after 15 minutes, Father Groppi, the white Roman Catholic priest who has supervised civil rights protests in Milwaukee for many months, led his youthful protesters quietly into the street.

They remained outside until the rally had ended and Wallace had left through a rear exit accompanied by Secret Service agent and other security guards. Police dispersed the demonstrators without incident.

Two thousand or more Wallace supporters were turned away from the auditorium because it was filled. Some pounded on the doors in protest, then drifted away.

The appearance of the civil rights pickets inside the auditorium after a march from the candidate's hotel—where they had shouted "bigot, bigot"—enraged the partisan Wallace crowd. But, except for two minor incidents of name-calling and an occasional shove, there were no physical encounters.

Earlier in the day, Wallace had disavowed again, as he has many times, any belief in racism. He told a crowd at Springfield, Mo., "the worst bigots in the country are those who call other people bigots."

He expressed the belief that if police could run the nation for about two years, "they'd straighten it out." But, elaborating to newsmen, he said he did not propose a national police force, merely that police be allowed to "enforce the laws."

The continent of Australia was first given the name of New Holland.

No Marriage in White House

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Julie Nixon, daughter of Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon says even if her father wins the election she and David Eisenhower won't be married in the White House.

"A White House wedding, if my father is elected, would turn into a state affair," said Miss Nixon, "and neither of us want that. So we definitely decided to get married in a church."

Miss Nixon, here Wednesday with her future mother-in-law, Mrs. John Eisenhower, to open a GOP campaign headquarters, said she and David will announce the wedding date after the November election.

LOVESICK STUDENTS ARE HIS PROBLEM

Dear Helen: I teach junior high math, and am probably going to have the same kind of trouble this year that I had in the past.

Girl students think they are in love with me, especially one of them. Last year she wrote me many love notes, and even came to my house on weekends. On the last day of school she was crying and she and another girl insisted on kissing me goodbye.

I am 29 years old, happily married with two children. I try to laugh off or ignore these girls, but you don't know how persistent they can be!

What's the best way to handle them?—TEACHER

Dear Teacher: . . . With caution, reserve, and empathy for junior high school hero worship. Most young male teachers face this problem. Perhaps a few will write in and tell us how they handle it. Please?—H.

Dear Helen: When my fiancée and I were in college, I knew he was friends with a few "fairly nice fellows," but I thought he was just being democratic, and not putting down men who were different.

I liked these boys too. They're easy to talk to—and safe. Like another girl friend.

Everything went fine for 10 years after we were married. Then my husband turned cold and started making all kinds of excuses. Or else he'd get loving just before we had to go out for dinner or something, when he knew it was impossible. Then he'd say, next time I tried to entice him, that I'd hurt his pride before, and I didn't really want him. And he'd take off for the club, or read very late.

There's one male friend he is different.

with a lot. The other day I saw somebody whispering about them, and snickering.

Or maybe it's another woman. He meets a lot of them in his work. I could hope it is. This I could fight!

All I know is I'm losing my husband, and I don't think my "lacks" have anything to do with it. I'm warm, loving, quite nice looking, neat, and I've tried to be understanding, but my suspicions are driving me wild. I hate myself for them, but I can't shut them out. Whatever can I do?—S.W.

Dear S: Your best hope is a long discussion with your doctor. I can't tell you where this will lead, but getting your fears out in the open may help dissolve them—or show you how to face them.—H.

Dear Helen: A while back a lady who signed herself "50" told you she disliked being called "Young Lady" by clerks. She said if it's meant to be flattering it misses its mark, as it means insincere praise. I agree! And I don't think you should pass this off lightly by answering that it's better than being called "Granny." Really! What's wrong with "Madame"?—60

Dear 60: All I meant was, don't ding a clerk for trying—albeit somewhat misguided—to put customers at ease. If "Young Lady" makes you cringe instead of laugh, a few "Sonny's" in your conversation will bring him back to "Madame."—H.

Broyles Hopes New Offense Will Click

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks have turned to the wide-open pro-type offense in an attempt to perk up their running game. Make sense? Coach Frank Broyles thinks so, or at least he hopes so.

"If the running game can't be improved, we can't expect to improve our record," Broyles says. "Our poorest running games have come in 1963 and in 1967."

The Razorbacks went 5-5 in 1963 and 4-5-1 last year—Broyles' second losing season at Arkansas in 10 years.

"We haven't had so much enthusiasm since 1964, when we went to the wide-slot formation," he says. "The strength of our ball club in 1968 comes from the optimism of our players."

Broyles says Arkansas is attempting "to take the basic pro passing game and fuse it with the best parts of the Arkansas running and passing attacks."

Actually, Broyles says, the ideas are not new. "Change is the trend," he says. "This is why we led the league in defense in 1964 with a 180-yard defensive average per game. Last year, we led again, but the average jumped to 276 yards per game."

The increasing offensive changes have forced Broyles to partially abandon the 5-2 monster defense Arkansas helped popularize. Broyles says the Razorbacks will use the 4-3 pro-type defense often.

"Everybody gets dissatisfied with his old defense; apparently it isn't working as well as it used to," he says. "So coaches have spent the year at the drawing boards, changing."

Broyles is hopeful the new offense, which features two wide receivers and a third potential receiver stationed between the split end and tackle, will force the opposing defenses to spread out—thereby giving some talented backs more room in which to operate.

David Dickey, who scored 16 touchdowns last year, returns at tailback along with Russell Cody, who gained 383 yards on 95 tries. A third candidate is Bill Burnett, a sophomore.

"This is a very deep position," says Broyles. "Dickey's a leader and he has great hands for catching the ball. Cody's showing great improvement. He's the quickest and is cutting down on mistakes of last year. Burnett is the shiftest. He can break for the long one."

Fullback is also well-stocked with Glenn Hockersmith, last year's starter, and Bruce Maxwell, a bruiser who started two years ago as a sophomore but sat out last season.

Max Peacock, who snagged 25 passes during the last half of 1967, will be the split end and Chuck Dicus, a sophomore with 10 second speed and good hands, will be the flankerback.

Tight end Mike Sigman is also a capable receiver. "Who's going to run this potentially high-powered offense? Broyles isn't saying. He'll tell you that senior Gordon Norwood, junior John Eichler and sophomore Bill Montgomery are all running on the first team at quarterback."

"I hope one of them comes to the top, but all three men will see more action this year," Broyles says. "Montgomery is the best runner. He has quick feet and a quick arm. All three are throwing well."

Broyles will admit that Montgomery, a 6-foot-1, 172-pounder from Carrollton, Tex., is an "outstanding prospect." But, he reminds Broyles, he's a sophomore.

"If he is going to be No. 1, I want him to earn it on the field and not have me give it to him," says Broyles.

Broyles seems far more worried about the defense than the offense. "The defense is suspect," he says. "If you don't believe that, then check into the number of sleeping pills my defensive coaches are taking."

Broyles says the defense has four "established" players and he ticks off the names of halfback Gary Adams, safety Terry Stewart, and Tommy Dev and tackle Terry Don Phillips.

Gordon McNulty, a junior in eligibility who sat out two years after transferring from Vanderbilt, and Rick Kersey, an aggressive sophomore, should help the defensive line.

The secondary should be sound but there are some unanswered questions at linebacker.

Broyles summed up the switch to the more wide-open brand of football by saying:

"It's good for the game, good for the fans that we're making more yards, more points. It's tough on the coaches. It's sudden. And you don't know whether it's for us or them."

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — On the top it would appear that Fort Smith Northside, the top-ranked team in the Associated Press Arkansas High School poll would have little trouble this week.

Ellis Wants
Win to Be Convincing

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Jimmy Ellis doesn't just want a victory over Floyd Patterson, he wants a convincing one. And he Ellis, who defends his World

Boxing Association heavyweight championship against Patterson at Stockholm's outdoor Raasunda Stadium Saturday, said Thursday:

"This is an important fight for me. My last fight against Jerry Quarry (whom he defeated for the title) was a good one tactically—but I suppose it was a good one from a public point of view."

"I want to win this one against Patterson in a convincing way. I think my right hand will be the answer."

Hope Goes to Prescott Tonight

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Almost without a doubt, the events of a few hours hence at Cummins Field in Prescott will largely determine whether or not this is the year for winning football to return to Hope.

Coming off that opening 7-0 slip to Ashdown last Friday, the Hope Bobcats consider tonight's battle with Prescott a must game. They had better keep their thoughts intact during the game, because a loss to the Curley Wolves would not only be a blow to the team pride because of the rivalry involved, but it would also place Hope into the unacceptable position of being 0-2.

This game has a double meaning for Prescott, in addition to the fact that for them the Hope game is the big game of the year. The second factor is that this will be a 7-A conference game for the Wolves, who would rather keep playing the Bobcats than take on easier Yerger in its place.

It's been a long time since Hope folks were used to following a winning ball club, but this one has all the possibilities. However, the squad can't just start winning; they have to be expected to win each time they take the field.

So much for the philosophical aspects of the clash; let's take a closer look at the issues involved. A circumstance that should favor things up even more is the fact that the squads' strengths will oppose the other's, and the same way for weaknesses.

The Bobcats will have a definite advantage in size and depth, but size and depth do not win ball games alone. In the next few lines I will try to explain why that, if they play the way they're capable of playing, the Bobcats should be a shade above Prescott. Oh, say by the margin of 13-6.

When the Curley Wolves line up on offense, it is certain they will first try to make their running game work. This is good for Hope, because the Cats held Ashdown to only 38 yards rushing. Prescott quarterback can throw the ball, but prefers to run the sprintout.

Most of the Prescott running attack will center around the sprint-out, mixed in with effective dives off end by HB Mike Koger, who has shown on films that he can pick the holes very well.

Jerry Hubbard and Roscoe Franks are also determined runners, and gained many yards against Stamps last week.

Because of these obvious assets, Prescott Coach Charles Montgomery hasn't worried too much for a passing arm. Should the need arise, he may have to worry. Greer was a fair passer last year, but with a bad shoulder is not quite as effective this time around. This matches up well with the relatively inexperienced Bobcat defensive secondary, but passing is what the Curley Wolves beat Hope with last year, for the first time in 33 years.

When the Hope offensive unit steps up to the line of scrimmage, it will be quite ready to run over the opponent. Several personnel changes have been made in the line, making it stronger all the way around.

Senior David Jones (190), who looked great at center last week, has been promoted to the starting position at that spot for Prescott. Now fully recovered from a knee operation during the off-season, David is an obvious asset with his experience and good blocking.

Mike Allen was moved from center to tackle in the switch, and he will start at strongside tackle tonight. Another gain to the offense is the addition of soph Gary Wheelington at tailback, as Gary is already proving that he can give Jerry McWilliams rest at any time.

As far as the kicking game goes, the Bobcats should lead the punting stats with junior David Jones, who carried a 40.5 average last week. Mike Payne, a senior defensive halfback, does the punting for the Curley Wolves and is capable of kicking the pigskin a long way. Stuart Freeland handles the placements adequately for Prescott, and Ronny Brown handles that job for Hope.

All things considered, label tonight a new beginning for Bobcat football, as Hope embarks on a winning season for the first time in four years. As for a score, 13-6 in favor of Hope sounds like a fine reprieve from the ranks of the beaten, and the start of a new winning streak for Hope people to talk about.

KICKOFF, KIND OF—The start of professional football's regular season gets under way soon, though many may think the campaign is already rounding the halfway point. But those were only exhibition games that have clogged up weekend television so far. Some of last year's standout players will surely be Sunday heroes again. The NFL's top passer Sonny

Relying entirely on a powerful running game which racked up 225 yards total offense, the Hope Bobkittens smashed their way to a 25-0 win in their season opener at Prescott last night.

The first time a Kitten touched the ball, HB Ray Wheelington returned a punt 95 yards for a score. However, it was nullified by a roughing-the-kicker penalty.

Very quickly, though, Tommy Miller got his hands on a punt and dashed 75 yards for a touchdown. Quarterback Steve Harris opened the second half with a 70-yard TD kickoff return, and Wheelington bunched in scores on runs of 45 and 5 yards.

The Bobkittens stood out on defense, holding Prescott to a mere five yards total offense. Outstanding individual performers were David Sanders, Lynn Norton, Rodney Burke, and David Powers.

On offense the Kittens moved the ball up and down the field, controlling the ball throughout the game. Wheelington led the rushers, for the Kittens with a whopping total of 112 yards. He was followed closely by Tommy Miller's 82 yards on the ground.

Randolph, Bright Have Bad Luck

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (AP) — Bob Seagren and John Carlos, track and field's newest world record holders, have their own problems, but hold a moment and consider the infuriating plight of Jerry Bright and Tom Randolph.

Bright and Randolph ran 200 meters in 20.1 seconds at the U.S. Olympic track and field trials on the wooded track just up the hill from here Thursday, one-tenth of a second slower than had ever been run before.

They will not, however, be part of the U.S. Olympic team—three men in the race ran it faster than they did.

There was Carlos, whose 19.7 clocking beat Tommie Smith's world mark by three-tenths. There was Smith himself, second in 19.8, and there was Larry Questad, third in 20.0.

Seagren broke the world pole vault record by an inch and a quarter—or was it just an inch?—clearing the bar at 17-9 as he became perhaps the only member of the U.S. pole vault contingent who doesn't shock people by being there.

The other two are John Pennell, who once held the world mark but had been out of action for two years after an automobile accident and has just now rounded into complete recovery, and Casey Carrigan, the first high school student ever to clear the 17-0.

Seagren's vault was announced as 17-9, but then some stickler for the rules said, no, it was only 17-8 3/4, because when converting from meters to feet you have to subtract one-quarter. But then it was decided to submit the record as 17-9, or 5.41 meters, which is the same thing, and let the International Amateur Athletic Federation iron it out.

Carrigan, of Orting, Wash., whose previous best was 16-8 3/4, could hardly stand in one place after vaulting 17-0 and earning a spot on the squad.

No sooner had Carlos run his race, winning what observers were quick to call the finest 200 in history, than credit for the world record came into doubt.

Rules say a track shoe may have no more than eight spikes. Carlos was testing a new shoe with 68 tiny rubber edges that are like little brushes.

The rule was made when the new rubberized tracks now generally in use were unheard of and really has no application to present circumstances.

But it is the rule and H Imer Olympic Track and Field Committee, expressed doubts that Carlos' mark would receive international recognition.

Two other winners Thursday were George Young, the 31-year-old Casa Grande, Ariz., schoolteacher, and Mark Murro the 19-year-old-Mesa, Ariz., junior college student.

Young won the 3,000-meter steeplechase in 8:57.9. Also earning trips to Mexico were Bill Reilly, second in 8:58.8 and Conrad Nightengale, third in 9:04.4.

Murro, whose home is Newark, N.J., tossed 263-9 with a javelin borrowed from Garry Skendrud, who finished third to Frank Covelli's 259.

Montgomery, Dickey Star in Scrimmage

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Tailback David Dickey, who scored 16 touchdowns last year at the University of Arkansas, scored three Thursday and passed for another as the Razorbacks scrimmaged the reserves.

The result was an overwhelming 57-3 victory.

Dickey scored on runs of one, six and seven yards and tossed eight yards to Chuck Dicus for another touchdown. Russell Cody, one of the Razorbacks' three tailbacks, scored on an 88-yard kickoff return and a seven-yard run.

Bill Montgomery, a sophomore, performed better than the other two quarterbacks, fifth-year senior Gordon Norwood and junior John Eichler. Montgomery completed 13 of 17 passes for 213 yards and one touchdown — a 28-yarder to fullback Bruce Maxwell.

Norwood hit on 5 of 13 passes for 51 yards and Eichler connected on 3 of 6 for 39 yards.

"I thought Cody had some outstanding runs," said coach Frank Broyles. "He did real well and ran the ball extremely well."

"I was pleased with the effort and our good morale," he said. "I was expecting it to look slow because we are heavy legged and it was slow."

VICTOR BERGE and members of the Temple University football team joined in a past concoced by Borge. The pianist-comedian, performing in a theater close to where the collegians were training, suffered a pulled calf muscle and Temple trainers gave him heat treatment. The meal was in gratitude.

Tennessee, Georgia Meet Sat.

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN Associated Press Sports Writer

Tennessee and Nebraska, two of the top 20 teams in The Associated Press' preseason poll, help kick off college football's 100th campaign Saturday. Both could lose their ranking before the day is over.

Tennessee, 9-1 a year ago before losing to Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl, is ranked No. 9. The defending Southeastern Conference champion Vols enter the SEC-rival Georgia on their new $250,000 all-weather Tartan turf in Knoxville in the first nationally televised game of the season (ABC, 3:45 p.m., EDT).

Nebraska's 13th-ranked Cornhuskers, trying to rebound from the worst season (6-4) Coach Bob Devaney ever had, are at home against Wyoming, only major team to go unbeaten in 1987 regular season play but not as strong this time around.

Other afternoon action finds North Carolina State at Wake Forest, New Mexico State at Utah State, Buffalo at Iowa State and Arkansas State at Western Michigan.

At night, Tulane is at Houston, Richmond at Toledo, Lamar Tech at West Texas State, Miami of Ohio at Xavier, Kent State at Dayton, Parsons at East Carolina, Morehead State at Marshall, Colorado State U. at New Mexico, California-Santa Barbara at Texas-El Paso and Furman at Mississippi College.

In a battle of small college powers, San Diego State, voted tops in the country last season, hosts Texas-Arlington, No. 6.

Damascus Is Favorite at Detroit

By ED SCHUYLER JR. Associated Press Sports Writer

The Michigan Mile and One-Eight figures Saturday to become the latest link in the Damascus Road—a horse-racing super highway built on success.

Damascus rates as the heavy favorite to make the event at Detroit Race Course his fourth consecutive victory and 22nd in 30 career starts.

Mrs. Edith W. Bancroft's millionaire 4-year-old, the 1987 Horse of the Year and a leading contender for the same honor this year, has drawn the high weight of 133 pounds and will be opposed by 11 others.

One of them is Damascus' stablemate, Hedevar, who served as a pacemaker rabbit the two times Damascus defeated arch-rival Dr. Fager. The good doctor is resting from his winning effort in the United Nations Handicap on the grass at Atlantic City last Wednesday.

Others in the field are A.E. Reinhold's Maverick III, second high-weighted at 118; Yorkville, Dunham, Building, Wesley Ashcraft, Abe's Hope, Irish Dude, Stanislas, Nodouble and Misty Run.

Frank Y. Whiteley Jr., trainer of Damascus, remembers Stanislas well. In the 1986 Michigan Mile and One-Eighth, Stanislas upset the Whiteley-trained Tom Rolfe, the 1985 Horse of the Year.

Two of the sport's queens—William Haggin Perry's Gamely and Mrs. Richard C. duPont's Politely—head a probably field of seven for the 1 1/4-mile, $75,000-added Beldame Stakes for fillies and mares at Aqueduct.

Expected to give the two favorites the most trouble is Paul Mellon's Amerigo Lady. The other probabilities are Straight Deal, Sweet Folly, Treacherous and Serene Queen.

Goldstrand Leads in Kemper Open

By DAVE O'HARA Associated Press Sports Writer

SUTTON, Mass. (AP) — Joel Goldstrand, winner of less than $2,200 on the PGA tour this year, held a one stroke lead over comeback veteran J.C. Goosie, but Arnold Palmer was right on their heels today as the $150,000 Kemper Open entered the second round.

Goldstrand, 29-year-old former Houston star from Worthington, Minn., shocked the veteran pros by employing a sizzling home-made putter for a five under par 67 on the 7,230-yard Pleasant Valley Country Club course Thursday.

Goldstrand, who barely managed to earn a tournament berth in a qualifying round Monday, used the putter he made himself for the first time—and he needed to use it just 29 times on mammoth greens.

He took a normal putter, hollowed it and used epoxy steel to put a mallet on it. He let it harden overnight, filed it down and insert a brightly painted nail in the center to help him with putting direction. It worked—at least the first time he used the putter.

Goosie, 39, who returned to the tour last spring after spending more than seven years as a club pro in Florida, took a bogey on the first hole and then settled down for an outstanding round.

Palmer came through with his finest opening round since the Memphis open in June as he carded a 69 despite 33 putts. He was satisfied with his driving and putting but said he still is not "crispy" with his irons.

Tied with Palmer entering the second round were Bruce Crampton, Art Wall, Charles Sifford, Phil Rodgers, Mike Higgins and Bert Greene.

Hot pro Paul Harney, Mac McLendon, Laurie Hammer and Al Gieberger were another stroke back with 70s.

U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino was far back with a fat 76.

STANTON, Mass. — Jimmy Ramos, North Easton, Mass., outpointed Danny Garcia, Dominican Republic, 10, middleweights.

LOS ANGELES — Andy Kendall, 175, Portland, Or., stopped JQOE Hopkins, 168, West Jordan, Utah, 5; Scooter Mexa, 136, Fresno, Calif., knocked out Leo Becerra, 138, Mexico, 1.

PORTLAND, Maine — George Johnson, 162, Trenton, N.J., outpointed Wilfredo Hurst, 158, New York, 10.

In news from the training camps Thursday, Oakland announced it has finally signed No. 1 quarterback Daryle Lamonica to a three-year contract worth an estimated $200,000.

The ex-Notre Dame star was Player of the Year in 1967 when he guided the Raiders to a 13-1 record and the league title.

The Denver Broncos placed their No. 1 draft choice, offensive guard Curley Culp, and veteran defensive tackle Paul Smith on waivers. It left a total of three vacancies on the Broncos roster, and Coach Lou Saban will have until just before game time Sunday to decide who to activate.

Eight Pro Games on Weekend

By MIKE BRYSON Associated Press Sports Writer

Atlanta and Minnesota, a couple of teams consigned to a year of mediocrity, blast off the 49th National Football League season Saturday night.

The opener on the Vikings' field is the first of eight games in three days during which all 16 NFL teams make their debut.

Meanwhile, Houston's defending Eastern Division champs, still smarting over an opening loss to Kansas City, take on Miami, 0-0, in the Orange Bowl as the American Football League swings into its second week of activity Saturday night.

Both Minnesota and Atlanta are rich with youth, and neither has a potent offense. The Falcons won only one of 13 games in their second season in the NFL last year, while Minnesota claimed the Central Division cellar for the second straight year.

Not much improvement is expected of either this season.

In a minor surprise, Viking Coach Bud Grant announced that Joe Kapp will be his starting quarterback instead of Gary Cuzzo.

Cuzzo was picked up from New Orleans in an effort to add more punch to the Vikings' sagging attack, but missed valuable time during the exhibition season with a jammed shoulder.

However, Grant did say he wouldn't hesitate to change quarterbacks at any time during the game.

Atlanta has been forced into a bevy of personnel changes because of injuries, including a knee injury that has sidelined flashy fullback Junior Coffey.

Miami faces a difficult chore in stopping the Oilers' Pete Beathard, who hit on 23 of 48 passes, including two touchdown strikes to rookie Mac Halk, for 385 yards in the loss at Kansas City.

The second-year Dolphins boast a beefed up attack headed by quarterback Bob Griese and rookie fullback Larry Csonka.

Six other NFL openers are on tap Sunday—including Green Bay's opening bid for an unprecedented fourth straight league championship against Philadelphia—and one more Monday night.

In other Sunday openers, Baltimore, with golden armed Johnny Unitas a doubtful starter, entertains San Francisco; Cleveland is at New Orleans; New York at Pittsburgh; Washington at Chicago, and Detroit at Dallas.

St. Louis plays host to strong Los Angeles Monday night in a nationally televised game, CBS, 9:30 p.m., EDT.

The NFL is carved into four divisions against this season, with Green Bay favored in the Central, Dallas in the Capitol, St. Louis and Cleveland in the Century and Los Angeles and Baltimore in the Coastal.

Over in the American League, Oakland's defending champs make their debut at Buffalo, 0-1 Sunday, while New York plays its first game at Kansas City, 1-0 and Denver, 0-0, is at Cincinnati, 0-1.

San Diego, 1-0 and Boston, 0-1, are idle this week.

In news from the training camps Thursday, Oakland announced it has finally signed No. 1 quarterback Daryle Lamonica to a three-year contract worth an estimated $200,000.

The ex-Notre Dame star was Player of the Year in 1967 when he guided the Raiders to a 13-1 record and the league title.

The Denver Broncos placed their No. 1 draft choice, offensive guard Curley Culp, and veteran defensive tackle Paul Smith on waivers. It left a total of three vacancies on the Broncos roster, and Coach Lou Saban will have until just before game time Sunday to decide who to activate.

Venue Change Is Denied

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP) — A petition seeking a change of venue in the trial of Edwin O. Pittman of Cotter was denied Tuesday by Circuit Judge Harrell Simpson.

Cotter is accused of the May 4 slaying of Sheriff Emmett Edmonds of Baxter County. Edmonds was shot during Pittman's escape from the county jail.

Pittman's attorneys sought the change of venue, contending that Pittman couldn't get a fair trial in Baxter County.

Street Became Quiet Sticky

GARDNER, Mass. (AP) — A 650-pound barrel of corn syrup headed for Priscilla's candy shop spilled onto the pleasant street Wednesday.

Shop owner Robert V. Trudell, after watching the fire department unsuccessfully try to wash the syrup away, went to work with a shovel.

Two and a half hours later he had cleaned up most of the mess. Firemen diluted the rest.

Time To MOVE UP

It's Promotion Time...Sunday School Commencement time. Every youngster longs for this time of year. They have done well and must be promoted. They are moving ahead, making progress in the teachings of God. In that there is delight.

Perhaps Promotion time should be just as important to adults as to the young.

Maybe we should check our progress in Christian living. If we had to earn our yearly promotion where would we be? Are we going to church more? Have we increased our giving?

Do we help more in various church programs? Do our lives reflect deeper religious beliefs? Would my pastor O.K. my promotion? Would my family give me a card? How about my relatives, friends and business associates? It is Promotion time and can we meet the challenge? Can we truly say it is Time for us To Move Up.

Alex. H. Washburn
Deadly Hazard
West Avenue B
Banker Reward

Y our editor is putting this into the public record in the event that the Missouri Pacific Railroad and its crews fail to clean up a dangerous situation on East Division St. at Laurel and thereby cause a fatal accident. I notified Hope police headquarters at 9:15 Thursday night, Sept. 12, 1968, that a railroad box car was left overnight projecting 7 1/2 feet into East Division, blocking the south traffic lane. No light, no warning of any kind for the unsuspecting driver heading east on Division St.

I stopped, measured the projection, and reported it to the police. Such a hazard is particularly deadly because the projecting iron coupling of a box car is high and out of the range of a car's headlights. At the very least the rail crew could have protected city traffic with a warning lantern.

After a long year and a half the reconstruction of West Avenue B has been completed — a disastrous chapter in good public relations for the City of Hope.

Weather was a factor, of course. Nevertheless the cars of residents on West Avenue B were virtually immobilized for 18 months while the street was dug up to plant new pipelines, a necessary step before construction of curbs and paving. Rainplunged the dirt work from start to finish. It does seem that the project might have been planned so traffic could have been maintained over half the width of the street, instead of being blocked entirely for a year and a half.

But the dark days are gone. Thursday I drove the whole length of a fine new street — and tempers are better on West Avenue B.

A note from Mitchell LaGrone, vice-president and cashier of Citizens National Bank, informs me that the Arkansas Bankers Association has established a program which will pay $1,000 reward to any person furnishing information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone robbing or burglarizing a bank.

The bankers' association wants the public to know that such a reward is offered, and to know also that bankers are making their own attempt to cut down the number of violent entries against banking houses.

It's a worthwhile effort backing up normal police work and the public interest. Banks were never more important to the public than they are today, evidenced by the fact that the government has abolished postal savings due to gradual disuse.

And the underwriting of bank deposits by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation brings the taxpayer into the picture. If losses become severe enough they might eventually cost the citizen additional taxes.

The bankers deserve public response wholeheartedly in their private fight against crime and violence.

Says Washington Sending Money to Wallace

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Odell Pollard of Searcy, chairman of the state Republican party, said Thursday that George C. Wallace is "receiving money from Washington," and that he is running to help the presidential candidacy of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Wallace speeches and statements to the press have made it obvious that he is part of the team dedicated to electing Hubert Humphrey president in November," Pollard said.

Pollard said that Wallace, a third party presidential candidate, had renewed his "vicious attack" on GOP presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon during an appearance in Little Rock Wednesday night.

"Wallace, who has a history of political opportunism, is only running to help the candidacy of Hubert Humphrey," Pollard said. "Wallace cannot possibly win the presidency himself and he knows it, but he can help put Hubert Humphrey in office and earn himself a bargaining position for personal gain."

Pueblo's Job Was Snooping Report Shows

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The USS Pueblo was told to snoop on Soviet ships passing near Japan as a follow-up to her electronic surveillance of North Korea, a U.S. document shows.

The intelligence ship was supposed to visually inspect and photograph Soviet naval vessels, openly, while returning to the U.S. base at Sasebo, Japan.

The additional mission was forestalled when the North Koreans captured the Pueblo—in North Korean territorial waters, they claim—on Jan. 23, four days before she would have headed for Sasebo.

The secondary snooping job was disclosed for the first time Thursday as the U.S. government broke out of secrecy a Jan. 5, 1968 order to refute a new North Korean allegation.

The North Korean radio said the Pueblo was authorized to go as near as three miles from the North Korean coast, under a Feb. 28, 1966 order. The United States recognizes a three-mile limit, North Korea claims 12.

The State Department acknowledged such an order went out to "a great many" Navy vessels operating near foreign shores but this was superseded in the case of the Pueblo by a specific instruction Jan. 5, 1968.

That message, couched in cryptic, off-limits military lingo, set out general details for the Pueblo's North Korea spy assignment, code-named "Ichthyonic One."

A key passage, so far as the U.S. government's effort to refute the North Korean claim is concerned, said:

"CPA (closest point of approach) to Korean (Communist) Korea-Soviet Land Mass-Offshore Islands will be thirteen NM (nautical miles)."

Said State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey: "We continue to have no reason to believe that the captain of the Pueblo did not adhere to the 13-mile restriction in his sailing order."

The instruction told Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, skipper of the Pueblo, to leave Sasebo about Jan. 8, proceed through the Tsushima Straits and up the Korean coast to operational areas designated Mars, Venus and Pluto.

These were Sea of Japan zones delineated on a north-south basis by the 39th to the 42nd parallels.

The Pueblo, according to the publicly released copy of the order, was to operate from 13 miles offshore to 60 miles out between the 39th and 42nd parallels.

And the underwriting of bank deposits by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation brings the taxpayer into the picture. If losses become severe enough they might eventually cost the citizen additional taxes.

Dame Fashion Refuses to Behave Like Lady, Just a Spoiled Child

By JOY STILLLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — Dame Fashion refuses to behave like a lady, but she does act like a spoiled girl—contrary, demanding, unpredictable.

She's completely inconsistent. First she decrees that sunglasses must be almost bigger than the face behind them, and then she provides a purse to carry them in too small for any eyegear except contact lenses.

Each time she mandates a new mode—needlepointed shoes more suited for weapons than wearing, footwear as squared-off as a beak of a duckbill platoon, or clumsy types a podiatrist would hesitate to prescribe even when necessary—I vow they are not for me.

By the time I finally succumb to her dictates my new shoe style has been replaced by something even more unflattering and again I'm out of step and out of style.

If I could only learn to dispose of my clothes the moment they fall from fashion I would be spared a good deal of frustration. The way I operate is to save them for years, deciding each time I attempt to make the final sacrifice that they are too good to discard. Finally, in a clean sweep of the closet, out

Case Affects 38,000 Reservists

WASHINGTON (AP) — A case that could affect some 38,000 reservists called to active duty in the Vietnam war buildup is going to be considered for a hearing by the Supreme Court.

Justice William O. Douglas Thursday ordered the government to delay sending 113 Army reservists to Vietnam until the court decides whether to consider their challenge of President Johnson's authority to activate them.

Johnson activated the reservists under a 1966 congressional act that empowers the President to call up the reserves without a declaration of war or national emergency.

Douglas, phoning from a vacation in Goose Prairie, Wash., acted only a day before the reservists were to be shipped out for Vietnam.

The case is believed to be the first challenge to the 1966 act and Douglas said it raised substantial questions.

Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justice Hugo L. Black both rejected review of the case last week in keeping with the court's past reluctance to rule on cases growing out of the war.

Douglas, however, and Justice Potter Stewart have called on their colleagues to come to grips with cases that challenge the legality of the war.

The reservists, all from the Cleveland, Ohio, area and now stationed at Ft. Meade in Maryland, paid $50 apiece to hire a lawyer and make their fight.

"It couldn't have been more than 11th hour," said their spokesman, Spec. 4 Bradish G. Morse. "It's really fantastic."

Although reluctant to enter the area of the Vietnam war, the court has upheld the law that makes it a crime to destroy draft cards.

Next term it will hear the appeal of a divinity student who was stripped of a congressional authorization draft exemption when he protested the war by turning his draft card over to the Justice Department.

50th Year as Church Organist

Mrs. B. C. Hyatt, organist at the First United Methodist Church is celebrating her 50th year as a church organist with a special service at the morning hour on September 15. Former choir members have been invited to attend and Mrs. Hyatt wishes it to be an appreciation service for all who have served with her during these years.

Mrs. Hyatt, the former Florence Spragins, began her career as organist and choir director at the St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Hope during her senior year in Hope High School. While a student at Randolph Mason Woman's College in Lynchburg, Va., she served the Rivermont Methodist Church. Returning to Hope to teach high school she was organist at the Presbyterian Church, and later at the Presbyterian Church in Monticello where she taught and was married.

In 1938 she came to the Methodist Church where she has served except for a brief interval since that time, having served fifteen pastors in all.

Members of her family will be here for the Sunday service and interested friends are cordially invited.

Spending Cut Doesn't Mean Big Spending Agencies Will Be Hit

By TOM STEWART
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's main targets in its efforts to meet the $6 billion spending cut ordered by Congress will not necessarily include all the big spending agencies.

Because new spending requirements have arisen since the original budget estimates were released in January, some departments will even come out of the money arena with more — not less — than was asked for them eight months ago.

Included are the Commerce Department, expected to get $885 million instead of the January estimate of $853 million; the Treasury Department, $16.3 billion instead of $15.4 billion; General Services Administration, $503 million instead of $493 million; and the Labor Department, $3.9 billion instead of $3.8 billion.

In each case the higher total is expected after both Congress and the administration have taken a turn with the knife, but the cuts programmed by the administration rank more as flesh wounds than major amputations.

The cut the administration has in store for Commerce, for instance, is $5 million, it plans to take $6 million from the Treasury, $12 million from GAS and $3 million from Labor.

As Budget Bureau Director Charles J. Zwick disclosed last Sunday, the administration is really faced with a $3.5 billion cutting job, not $6 billion, because $3.5 billion is all that will remain to be trimmed after Congress has had its own money slashing.

Zwick gave this breakdown of agencies and figures facing major cuts:

— $1 billion from non-Vietnam defense programs.

— $1 billion from loan programs of agencies such as the Small Business Administration, Farm Credit Administration and Export-Import Bank.

— 200 million from the federal-aid highway program, by delaying certain projects.

— 100 million from the space program, but without touching the Apollo man-on-the-moon project.

— 1.2 billion from all other civilian agencies, but with high-priority social programs such as "safe streets", low-income housing and manpower training protection cuts.

An administration spokesman said Thursday that cutting relatively heavy amounts from the lending programs seemed an easy and sensible thing to do.

It is a lot less painful to deny a loan that might have started some program, the spokesman said, than to cut back or halt a program already under way.

Russia Has Twice the Number of Troops as West in East Europe

By FRED HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials say intelligence reports indicate the Soviet Union has built up its army in Eastern Europe to more than 50 divisions, about twice the number maintained by the West on the other side of the Iron Curtain.

While the Soviet divisions are said to be in a very high state of readiness, some NATO divisions are below strength and lacking in sustained logistics support, by U.S. standards.

U.S. intelligence reports, charting Soviet moves connected with the occupation of Czechoslovakia, have sparked deep concern that the balance of power in Eastern and Central Europe has shifted against the West.

Officials stress they are talking about the threat in terms of Soviet capability rather than any Russian intent to attack.

Before the Russians led a Warsaw Pact invasion of Czechoslovakia on Aug. 20, the Soviet Union maintained 20 divisions in East Germany, two in Poland and four in Hungary.

NATO nations arrayed a total of 24 divisions in and near West Germany. France, no longer part of NATO, nonetheless contributed to Western military strength with two divisions in West Germany.

While the figures vary from nation to nation, a Soviet division contains about 10,000 men. An American division has about 15,000 men, exclusive of support troops.

Fighting Is Heavy, 217 Enemy Killed

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Allied forces battled strong enemy troops in two areas near the Cambodian border and killed at least 217 of them under a rain of bombs, artillery and machine-gun fire, military spokesman reported today.

An American task force reinforced by tanks and dive-bombers clashed with a North Vietnamese regiment in a 14-hour fight Thursday that swirled through rubber plantations in an arc north to east of the pivotal district town of Loc Ninh, 65 miles north of Saigon.

U.S. Headquarters said 113 enemy troops were killed. But more important, a U.S. intelligence

Humphrey Lashes Into Opponent

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey has assailed Republican presidential rival Richard M. Nixon by name while Nixon's running mate was all but apologizing for a verbal attack on Humphrey.

"I am not concerned about the 'new Nixon' or the 'old Nixon.' What worries me is the real Nixon," Humphrey told a rally at Sea Girt, N.J., Thursday night.

Humphrey labeled Nixon as "that man who abused Mr. Truman, who heaped scorn on Adlai Stevenson, who fought John Kennedy every step of the way," and who has opposed efforts of President Johnson.

In Rochester, N.Y., the GOP vice presidential nominee, Spiro T. Agnew, said he erred describing Humphrey as "squishy soft on communism."

Agnew said if he had realized the effect the statement would have, "I would have turned five somersaults to avoid saying it."

Nixon called for new leadership to restore respect for the United States around the world and urged a halt in trade with allies of North Vietnam as he campaigned Thursday in Indianapolis, Ind., and New Orleans, La.

"It is time we made clear that the flag of the United States is nobody's doormat," Nixon said.

Humphrey's running mate, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, also stepped up his attack on Nixon and charged, "Unfortunately in this campaign, as in all the last 20

Slot Machines Found at El Dorado

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Police officials announced today that a raid on an El Dorado business had uncovered 404 slot machines.

Police Chief Robert Pennington said the machines were found in a business managed by N. O. Bledsoe of El Dorado, who was forerun of the Union County Grand Jury term last March.

The raid was carried out about 4 p.m. Thursday by El Dorado police, State Police and agents of the Federal Bureau of Education, Pennington said.

At a news conference where he revealed the raid, Pennington was asked if there appeared to be any connection between the discovery of the slot machines and gambling that has existed in Hot Springs.

"This is not another Hot Springs," Pennington said.

He said the machines, many of them crated up, did not seem to be in working order. He declined to estimate the value of the machines, but it would run into the thousands of dollars.

More than a dozen raids on Hot Springs nightspots last year failed to uncover as many slot machines in use as were found stored in this raid led by El Dorado authorities.

Pennington said no arrest had been made and no charge filed. He added that he anticipated a charge would be filed later in the day.

Refuses to Appear at Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee, turned down by Justice Abe Fortas on a request that he testify further, received testimony today that Fortas was paid $15,000 for teaching a nine-week summer law course.

The funds, it developed, were raised from tax-deductible contributions solicited by his former law partner, Paul A. Porter.

The testimony was given by Dean B. J. Tenny of the American University Law School at reopened hearings for which Fortas declined to appear for new questioning on his nomination to succeed Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Fortas, a member of the court since 1965, sent Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., a letter respectfully declining to return for questioning shortly before the start of today's hearing.

Tenny, the first witness, said that Fortas had taught this summer a seminar on law and the social environment at the law school under a new program designed to provide a broader education for a selected group of students.

There is nothing illegal about such teaching, but Sen. Hiram Fong, R-Hawaii, asked Tenny if he felt a Supreme Court justice "should hire himself out" for services for pay.

The law school dean replied, "Yes, in terms of what he did for us."

Tenny said that it is "by no means rare" for a sitting justice to teach in a law school.

The dean said the $30,000 was raised to finance the course after Fortas "indicated he might be interested" in teaching. First explaining that it was "not normal policy" for the university to reveal the names of donors, Tenny said these five men contributed:

Guaceta L. Levy of New York City, Troy Post of Dallas, Maurice Lazarus of Boston, John Loeb of New York City and Paul D. Smith of New York City.

Fortas submitted to extensive questioning by the committee for four days in July. He was invited Tuesday to return for interrogation.

His letter to Eastland said: "I acknowledge receipt of your telegram advising me that a number of members of the Senate Judiciary Committee have expressed the desire that I return for further interrogation, as described in the telegram, relating to the President's nomination of me for the post of chief justice of the United States."

"I appeared before your committee initially, despite the lack of precedent for such appearance, because of my profound respect for the Senate and my view that such appearance might aid the Senate in the performance of its constitutional duty to advise and consent concerning judicial nominations."

The second paragraph of the letter continued:

"I hope that during the interrogation of me by members of the committee, my respect for the Senate as well as my profound and unshakable devotion to the court and the Constitution was evident."

"I believe that, now, my proper course of action is respectfully to decline to appear again at the request of some members of the committee for the further interrogation described in your telegram."

During the committee's earlier hearings in July, Fortas underwent four days of questioning, an unprecedented appearance for a nominee for chief justice.

Subsequently the committee received testimony that he had cast the deciding vote in a 5-4 Supreme Court decision in June, 1967, reversing a California case in which three strip-tease films were held to be hard-core pornography.

Several senators, both on and off the committee, have viewed the films and denounced them as degrading and beyond the protection of the free speech
